

Audio file

1973-10-03 - 13 - Cincinnati Reds met playoff in national league.mp3

Transcript

00:00:01

Guard Gary out in Oakland, CA. Let's go to Oakland, CA.

00:00:06

Had a buyer has not allowed to hit the Orioles are batting in the third inning with two down. Nobody on, and the Oakland A's are leading 3 to nothing. They knocked Jim Palmer out and now here is the third out of the third inning after 2 1/2 innings of score.

00:00:21

Three Baltimore. Nothing back to Jim Simpson has Chase Stadium in New York. Alright, Kurt, we'll be right back to you once this game is over. Rusty, stop near a shoulder of dislocation at his right shoulder when he banged into the wall yesterday. Three home runs. Five RBI's did.

00:00:35

Not play today.

00:00:37

Robbies and enjoying the fact his team leads by 5 seven to two neon and the last of the 8th to lead it off against Grimsley.

00:00:46

Inside Grimsley is the 4th Cincinnati pitcher.

00:00:51

While the Eastern division of the National League really took a lot of criticism all year long for being a nobody wants to win it Division Ron Ball gave it 1/2 hearted effort.

00:01:05

And reason really didn't charge that ball going quickly to his rights, and it took a step and 1/2 with his glove down and right goes right under probation.

00:01:15

Yes, I have to admit, Jim, that Dan Driessen did not go after that ball away. Pete Rose did the line drive in left field by Tom Stephen, also Joe Morgan on that. But on the ground ball.

00:01:23

To right field.

00:01:26

Here is Brian Jones 3 for 4:00 today.

00:01:31

Then a big man scored a run driven in a couple 6 for 19 in the series.

00:01:48

Right.

00:01:51

In the Cincinnati 9, the listed hitters are Geronimo Shaney.

00:01:56

And obviously a pensioner for the pensioner.

00:02:04

And you can feel that the Mets fans feel that the miracle of 69 is about.

00:02:10

To be repeated.

00:02:12

And what a scene it will be here if the Mets do win this game and the National League championship.

00:02:12

Right.

00:02:23

Striking and Leon Jones is the first out of the.

00:02:26

New York agent.

00:02:29

Strikeout #1 for Grenfell Al Milner, who has walked twice, scored once and single he is officially.

00:02:30

Great.

00:02:39

One for two.

00:02:45

The Met fans, some of them, are already beginning to stage some demonstrations down the right field corner.

00:02:59

Little Pop Morgan digs back on it, takes it over his shoulder. I play by Joe Morgan and then makes that throw. That allows beyond that to hustle back. And then comes what he made.

00:03:15

What he has driven on the run with a single infield hit has scored a lot, made a basket catch. He's one for two.

00:03:22

Jim Mattis had us caught here and he probably could only have it in New York. Willie Mays right here has a chance to be the.

00:03:28

Last met at bat officially in the ninth season 1973 extra strike with two eyes here on the year that he's retiring to and regular season play.

00:03:52

I know in the playoff the Dodgers were played best two out of three against the Giants in 63, the records counted as a regular season. I'm not sure it counts the championship playoffs like this.

00:04:04

Takes this way one ball, 2 strikes. Well, I remember what you were saying earlier about Reggie Jackson of Oakland wanting to play the Cincinnati Reds because he feels that the best team in the National League.

00:04:14

Oakland may get into the championships not against the Reds and maybe the Mets will have that little statement pinned up on.

00:04:20

Their bulletin board in the locker room.

00:04:23

That's out of Player 1, ball 2 strikes Molly makes well, I guarantee you whether Willy strikes out, rounds out, pops up, falls down, he's gonna get his arm in his hand.

00:04:35

And Sparky Anderson said that regardless of what anyone else says, the best team will win. So if the.

00:04:40

Mets win this game.

00:04:42

They'll be the best team.

00:04:45

Why the center field over those who want to mold thrifty is there. Drifty makes the out and what he means is out. So long one hit nowhere as one left Tom Seaver with A72. Lead has one more inning to go over the championship.